

Property Consultancy FHP announces new addition to its Derby office

FHP are pleased to announce the appointment of Darran Severn to bolster their Derby office. Darran will be working in the agency team alongside Tim Richardson based on Pride Park.

Darran comments "I am delighted to have joined the company at such an important stage in my career. FHP are one of the most active agents in the East Midlands and I am really looking forward to a long future with them. I have been brought in to expand the Derby office at a time when Derby itself is seeing new investment and growing as a city.

Having spent the last three years working in West London, I am pleased to have been able to move back to the East Midlands and join an award winning company. In my previous role, I specialised in office and industrial agency work within a five mile radius of Heathrow Airport. Marketing a portfolio of mixed properties has given me valuable experience in completing deals which benefit both landlords and tenants.

Now at FHP, I will be covering a wide range of agency instructions throughout Derbyshire including retail, office and Industrial properties. Whilst covering these instructions I am planning to complete the Assessment of Professional Competence and become chartered.

Although I have only been with FHP for a short time, it is very clear that everyone in the company shares a very forward thinking approach and it is very much a team effort.

It is an exciting time for Derby, and I am looking forward to the challenge of this market."
