FAT FREE MEDIA JOIN CASTLEBRIDGE OFFICE VILLAGE AS REFURBISHMENTS CONTINUE

Just a few days after completion of further refurbishments at Castlebridge Office Village, a new tenant signed up for the offices, joining existing occupiers to include 'Sumo Digital' who were also secured by FHP.

Fat Free Media Ltd, who produce branded video content <http://www.fatfreemedia.co.uk/>, have signed for a five year term for Unit 2, having been looking for new premises for some time.

The office has just undergone a full refurbishment, including on-site shower facilities, new kitchen and WC facilities and a full redecoration, as well as LED lighting, air conditioning and externally the estate has been fully landscaped plus extra bike racks installed.

Neil Rostance, Managing Director at Fat Free Media Ltd, comments:

"I am delighted to secure this premises as it offers us the perfect base to grow our video and animation team within a location filling up with other complimentary businesses. The refurbishment has been outstanding and offers us a modern working environment in a great location to grow our business in."

Lucinda Hancock of FHP's Office and Industrial Team, comments:

"The units appeal to occupiers for a number of reasons, namely the quality of the refurbishment, the generous parking allowance which is a key perk of out of town offices, and Castlebridge is also in close proximity to local amenities to include Costa and Sainsbury's with Castle Marina Retail Park just minutes away."

We have several other units in a range of sizes now also available on a fully refurbished basis, starting at 1,297ft² to 8,964ft² and we look forward to receiving any new enquiries."
