LUCINDA AND THE RICS MATRICS NOTTINGHAM COMMITTEE SPEAK AT NOTTINGHAM TRENT UNIVERSITY

Lucinda was this week invited back by Nottingham Trent University and the RICS to present to students at the University's Real Estate postgraduate induction day.

Lucinda alongside other members of the RICS Matrics Nottingham Committee outlined the benefits of RICS membership and a career in surveying.

The Nottingham Committee organise local Matrics events for students and young property professionals and forms part of the wider Matrics national network.

The session concluded with a Q & A session which allowed the 150 new postgraduates to question Lucinda and the rest of the panel about their experiences at NTU and beyond.

Lucinda commented:-

"Being back at NTU was brilliant and it was great to meet the new talent coming through into the profession. RICS student membership provides access to events, information and support during the training process and joining Matrics is an ideal way for anyone considering a career in surveying to get involved."
