

FROM BAKEHOUSE TO HOUSE OF BEAUTY

Originally constructed as the bakehouse within the Stable Yard of Darley Hall, this historic building was refurbished by DAS Sanctuary LLP 5 years ago. Following relocation of the former tenant, FHP Property Consultants are pleased to confirm that House of Beauty Skincare and Aesthetics have taken a lease

Tim Richardson from FHP property Consultants comments:

“Darley Stables and Bakehouse have been refurbished to an excellent standard and The Bakehouse being a standalone building suited the proposed use perfectly. The very pleasant location on the edge of Darley Park is also ideal for this type of use.

Other occupiers within the complex include a Pilates studio, physiotherapist and dance school”.

Sarah Clowes from House of Beauty comments:

“As a growing business we were delighted to relocate to the Bakehouse in the Stable Yard at Darley Abbey. The premises afford us a very high standard of accommodation whilst the setting provides the privacy which our clients expect. We look forward to spending many years there”.

Dr Tanya Spilsbury from DAS Sanctuary comments:

“It was great to find a new use that complements the other occupiers at Darley Abbey Stables so well. House of Beauty offers a professional and personal service which fits perfectly with the quality of the historic building conversion and the peacefulness of the parkland setting.”

Joint agents on this scheme were FHP Property Consultants and Innes England.
