BRAVISSIMO RELOCATE IN NOTTINGHAM

Even in these uncertain times, retailers are forward planning, and we are delighted to announce the relocation of Bravissimo, the leading national lingerie retailer who are relocating their store from Pelham Street to 46 Bridlesmith Gate adjacent to Kuoni Travel and opposite Hugo Boss.

Acting on behalf of Aberdeen Standard Investments jointly with Jackson Criss, Bravissimo have taken a new 10 year lease on 46 Bridlesmith Gate which comprises a total of 5,470ft² over basement, ground, first and second floors. The property occupies a prominent corner position on Bridlesmith Gate which is home to a number of national fashion, jewellery and accessory retailers including Hugo Boss, Fred Perry, Flannels, Ted Baker, Ecco, Diesel, Joules and Molton Brown.

Alan Pearson of FHP commented:-

"I am delighted to see Bravissimo take possession of 46 Bridlesmith Gate, this prominent corner unit will provide an ideal relocation for Bravissimo into modern retail premises. This follows the recent letting FHP completed on 15 Bridlesmith Gate to Carsi who opened earlier this year".
