

FHP INVEST IN THE FUTURE WITH FOUR KEY PROMOTIONS

FHP Property Consultants are pleased to announce despite the challenging year of 2020 four key promotions due to outstanding work and continued performance. The firm have announced the promotion of Oliver Marshall, Chris Proctor, Sian Cawthorne and Darran Severn to Associate Director.

Nottingham-based Oliver Marshall made the transition from residential to retail and leisure four years ago, having previously worked for sister-company FHP Living for over six years. He is primarily focused on high street retail and leisure lettings and acquisitions across the Midlands and is also involved in several regional schemes including St Marks Place in Newark, The Wulfrun in Wolverhampton, Pescod Square in Boston and Belvoir Shopping Centre in Coalville. It is highly commendable that Oliver managed to achieve 75 deals in the past 12 months, despite the challenging circumstances faced in 2020.

Chris Proctor has quickly established himself as a key member of the office and industrial team, completing over 55 deals in 2020 and working on a number of key lettings and sales across the region. His knowledge and expertise in the market has allowed him to advise a number of major clients and complete multi-million-pound deals, dealing with existing stock of sales and lettings, plus development work for long-term key clients.

Sian Cawthorne has covered all aspects of commercial property management in an eight-year career, including the management of Waterfront House on Station Street, one of the largest and most prominent office buildings in Nottingham.

Darran Severn joined FHP as a surveyor five years ago. With almost a decade of experience of property acquisition and disposal in the retail, office and industrial sectors, he has played an active role in the development of FHP's offices in Derby and Birmingham.

Alan Pearson, Director, FHP, said:-

"We take pride in rewarding talented and ambitious people at every level of our business. Sian, Oliver, Chris and Darran have all demonstrated an outstanding commitment to their clients over a sustained period, providing a consistent quality of advice, service and market knowledge. The success they have achieved in a challenging market is testament to their dedication and professionalism. The strength of our business is reflected in the continued development of our employees and these promotions show that there is a clear pathway to progression at FHP. Our ongoing investment in talent is a key component of our continued success across multiple markets."
