Location

City Buildings is a landmark Nottingham building situated adjacent to Nottingham Station. Carrington Street provides the main connection between Nottingham city centre and the southside of Nottingham. The location benefits from strong footfall throughout the day.

The location is within the Southside regeneration and part of numerous developments which are under construction including the new 260,000ft² HQ for Inland Revenue, the new Broadmarsh Car Park which will provide 1,400 car parking spaces and the location of the central library, and the new Nottingham College City Hub. The surrounding area including Collin Street and part of Carrington Street is also undergoing pedestrianisation which will dramatically change and improve the environment and vitality of the area.

The Property

City Buildings is a four storey Victorian property which dominates the street scene from Nottingham Station leading to the city centre.

City Buildings has undergone a full refurbishment internally and externally and now provides ground floor shops with 31,000ft² of Grade A office accommodation to the upper floors.

Accommodation

Internally the property provides open plan space with lots of character including exposed brickwork and prominent newly fitted heritage shop front.

The property provides the following approximate areas:-

Floor	m ²	ft ²
Ground Floor	64.28	691.89

There is the opportunity to also have the basement which is a further 800ft², please contact the agents for further details.

The landlord is in the process of incorporating the basement by adding an internal staircase at the back of the ground floor.

Lease Terms

The property is available to let by way of a new effectively full repairing and insuring lease for a term of years to be agreed.
