Location

Huddersfield sits strategically between Manchester and Leeds and has a population catchment of circa 2.2 million. The town has been identified by CACI as one of the UK's towns with exceptional potential for growth and it has been ranked the 47th largest catchment potential of any town in the UK. Huddersfield University is situated in the town centre and has 24,000 students.

New Street is the prime pedestrianised pitch in the heart of Huddersfield. With strong footfall, the parade is anchored by Primark with other key retailers in the immediate vicinity including One Below, Holland & Barrett, CEX as well as an eclectic mix of regional and independent tenants. The surrounding area is a mixed retail and residential location, the Co-operative Building opposite the subject property has recently been redeveloped into 126 student flats.

The Property

The property comprises a ground floor retail shop with prominent frontage onto the pedestrianised New Street. The shop has recently been completely renovated to provide a white box specification including suspended ceiling with LED lights, laminate flooring and new glazed shop front.
