Location

Bingham is an affluent and thriving market town to the south of Nottinghamshire. The town has a resident population of over 10,000 and over the last few years there have been a number of sizeable residential developments completed by national housebuilders and has a good tenant mix of national, regional and independent operators.

The property occupies a prominent position on Market Place located just off the Market Square with nearby occupiers including Co-op, Newton Fallowell, Birds Bakery and Costa Coffee. Bingham Town Centre offers free parking across multiple car parks with on street parking around the Market Square.

The Property

The subject property consists of first floor accommodation which would be suitable for a variety of uses. The existing tenant's fit out is still in situ with the remanence of the surgery but would be ideal for a range of uses to include a studio, office accommodation equipped as a beauty salon consisting of three rooms alongside staff welfare facilities and breakout space.
