We love helping families find something truly special, whether it's one of our popular story time cushions to celebrate a new arrival, or a keepsake for a birthday, or something that simply makes a little one smile or evokes a childhood memory for an adult! We are delighted to be joining the Peak Village community and have received a warm welcome from visitors and local families. The range of shops including independent businesses and makers really makes it a good fit for us and we love the community feel that it's unique setting provides. We are very excited about our future in the heart of the Peak District."
