Location

The property is located on a prominent corner position at the junction of Alcester Street and Harrimans Lane, within the well established Lenton Lane Industrial Estate. This longstanding commercial area is one of Nottingham's key industrial locations, benefitting from excellent access to the A52, A453, Nottingham Ring Road and the wider regional motorway network, especially J24 of the M1.

The surrounding area is known for a wide range of manufacturing, production and warehousing occupiers. Nottingham City Centre is approximately 1.5 miles away, providing convenient access and a substantial local labour pool.

Description

The property comprises a high quality industrial/warehouse unit that has been significantly upgraded over the past decade, presenting well both internally and externally. The building has been overclad with modern insulated panels, and the roof has been replaced, offering a clean, well maintained ready to occupy industrial property.

The building has the following specification:-

- LED lighting throughout the building
- Upgraded substantial three phase power
- Electric roller shutter door
- Excellent natural light via roof skylights
- Concrete floor
- Air compressor lines throughout the warehouse
- Security cameras and alarm system
- High quality mezzanine floor providing additional storage
- Welfare block containing male and female WCs, kitchenette and break out space
- Fully refurbished office accommodation including LED ceiling tiles, air conditioning, meeting rooms/individual office space and a fitted reception area
- 9 dedicated parking spaces
