Location

Alfreton lies within Amber Valley, 14 miles north of Derby and 17 miles north west of Nottingham. It provides excellent connectivity via road with the A38 providing access to the M1 (Junction 28). The town has a population of 23,000 and a retail catchment of approximately 138,000.

The town centre serves the needs of the surrounding community with the main shopping facilities centred around High Street and Institute Lane. The property lies in the heart of the town centre fronting Severn Square Car Park which is the town's principal car park, as well as being located a short distance from High Street and the pedestrianised Institute Lane. Severn Square Car Park provides 127 spaces at low cost parking with it being just 60p for 1 hour.

Nearby operators in the vicinity include a host of national, regional and independent tenants including Barnados, Peacocks, Home Bargains, Owzat Cricket as well as The Alfreton Library next door.
